Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c Explanation of Monitoring and Enforcement of Conflicts	Potential conflicts of interest must be disclosed. Once a disclosure is made, the interested person leaves the discussion while the determination of a conflict of interest is discussed and voted on by the remaining board members. The chairperson shall, if appropriate, appoint a disinterested person or committee to investigate alternatives to the proposed transaction. If no alternatives are found to be possible, the governing body shall determine by a majority vote of disinterested directors whether the arrangement involving the conflict of interest is in the best interests of the organization. If the governing body determines a member has failed to disclose a conflict of interest, the offender is given the opportunity to explain. The governing body has the authority to take appropriate disciplinary action if the member has indeed failed to disclose a conflict of interest. All such proceedings are recorded.
