990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Pt VI, Line 12c	The membership of the organization is informed at least once a year at the annual meeting of the existence of the conflict of interest policy and the membership is requested to report any perceived conflicts with the policy. The Executive Committee requests the membership, at the annual meeting, to determine whether such a conflict may exist and, if so, how it is to be addressed. If a conflict is established, a written report from an independent member of the Governing Board on how the conflict has been addressed, is presented at the Annual Meeting and memorialized in minutes.
