Form 990 (2018)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

To provide a forum for the exchange of information between college and university risk, insurance and/or employee benefits managers, to encourage the use of common concepts and practices in the organization and implementation of a risk and/or employee management program, to provide opportunities for familiarizing college and university risk, insurance and employee benefits managers with current developments in related industries, and to develop and maintain interest on a nationwide basis in continuous improvement of the principles and practices of risk, insurance, and employee benefits management and corporate loss control in higher education, and to foster and maintain the pursuit of these functions as a profession with professional ideals and standards

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Regional ConferencesThe regional meetings offer the benefit of a condensed conference that is a little closer to home. Regional meetings are one or one and a half days in duration. (Same goals as listed on Form 990, Part III, line 4c for the annual conference.) Attendance = 390 individuals and 52 speakers

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Annual ConferenceURMIA's Annual Conference provides higher education risk management and insurance professionals with a variety of job-specific benefits and a high return on investment. Top three reasons to attend include:

1. The 2018 Annual Conference will have a record-breaking number of sessions! You will find over 50 educational breakout sessions on a wide variety of hot topics presented for both the experienced higher education risk manager and those new to the profession. Because URMIA's Annual Conference is more intimate than some other conferences, you will find it easy to meet and interact with knowledgeable presenters, find mentors and make new friends in the field. View the detailed conference agenda now!
2. Discover all the engaging activities, plus pre- and post-conference program offerings! Do you and guests who accompany you want to be active beyond the sessions? We have planned everything from a golf outing at the scenic Mountain Dell Course and group community service opportunities for people of all abilities to yoga classes, meet and greet dinners, walking tours and a concert by the famous Mormon Tabernacle Choir in Salt Lake City. Want to expand your mind by arriving early or staying one extra day? Pre-conference offerings for those new to the field include RM 101 and the New Member and First Timer session. Other sessions for everyone cover topics such as sexual and interpersonal violence on campus and enterprise risk management (ARM-E) certification. A post-conference session will feature how the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints trains missionaries and prepares for the risks associated with the program. We also have a "Grand" opening reception planned in the courtyard at the conference hotel, and our gala event on Tuesday evening, Night at the Museum, will take place at the stunning Natural History Museum of Utah, located on the campus of the University of Utah. Bring some comfortable shoes as a light hiking option will be offered just before the event. Check out the detailed conference agenda and activities before you register!
3. A very special keynote speaker will open the conference! The conference will open with a keynote address by Elizabeth Smart, who was abducted as a child from her family's Salt Lake City home in 2002 and was held captive and sexually abused for nine frightening months before she was rescued from her captors. Now married with two children of her own, she has become an eloquent advocate for change related to child abduction, recovery programs and federal legislation. She is founder of the Elizabeth Smart Foundation, a published author and an eloquent speaker on protecting children from the risk of abduction. She serves as an inspiring example of the possibility of overcoming trauma and reclaiming one's life after tragedy.

Attendance = 724 individuals

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part III, line 2	We launched a peer review service in 2018, URMIA supports colleges and universities with the only peer review service exclusively dedicated to the improvement of higher education risk management. Unlike a generic audit, URMIA offers you a team of highly experienced peer risk managers who are deeply knowledgeable about the challenges facing institutions of higher education and how to meet them. You define the scope and focus of the assessment for which you wish to have a fresh perspective. This could include helping you improve risk management practices in Athletics, Compliance, EH&S, Finance, Student Affairs, Study Abroad, or other areas. The team could help you with insurance broker-institutional relationships, your training, oversight and reporting systems, implementation of an Enterprise Risk Management (ERM), and more.
