The Beth Wright Center writes some of the checks directly to the electric company, oil company, motel or other business providing the service to the grantee. In other cases the Beth Wright Center writes the check directly to the grantee. The Center is familiar enough with these situations as a referral is often made by the local hospital, social service agency, or by our Patient Navigator located in Washington County. The Center also makes follow-up phone calls to the grantees to monitor their situations. The Center also receives thank you notes from some of the people who received grants expressing their great appreciation.
