For each Maryland county that has a component fund within the MASSB Foundation, an advisory board of that county's social service board has the authority and responsibility to request financial support for children, adults, and families that the board determines to be at-risk and in need of services based on diligence provided by the local department of social services.

Assistance is only authorized for support services that are not otherwise available from a governmentally-provided program. The information provided in Part III above derives from a review of the withdrawal requests that local boards submitted to the MASSB Foundation's trustees for independent review, assessment, and approval when the withdrawal is consistent with the Foundation's 501(c)(3) mission. Through this approach, the MASSB Foundation has established a two-level system of checks and balances to assure proper vetting and approval of all disbursements.
