Form 990-EZ, Part III - Primary Exempt Purpose

LifeGate Worldwide is devoted to the rapid spread of the gospel of Jesus Christ by partnering with biblically equipped pastors to plant strong, local churches in their own countries. They provide a bridge linking like-minded Christians and churches to pastors who need their help via financial support and prayer. LifeGate is committed to foster strong, self-supporting churches by keeping financial support proportionate to the local economy and limiting support to a four or five year span, decreasing the level of support each year. LifeGate maintains a high level of fiscal accountability for every pastor and serves as a channel through which contributions are made to ensure funds go where they are intended and local churches and individuals are shielded from direct solicitations for funds from other parts of the world. They currently run projects in five countries in three continents.

Form 990-EZ, Part III, Line 28 - First Accomplishment

USA, Minnesota - LifeGate operations are located in Stillwater, Minnesota. It is from this location that they maintain connections between the partners. Monthly progress reports and prayer requests, written by the pastors themselves, assist churches, cell groups and individuals. These reports provide a front row seat in the church planting journey. A current local project is the Evangelization and discipleship of immigrants, refugees, and the urban poor through Beacon of Hope Church in Saint Paul.
