Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule D, Part X, Line 2 FIN 48 (ASC 740) footnote	Advance Illinois is exempt from federal income taxes under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and, therefore, has made no provision for federal income taxes in the accompanying financial statements. There were no income tax related interest or penalties recognized by the Organization for the years ended December 31, 2018 and 2017. The Organization has not been examined by any tax jurisdiction. The Organization has no on-going federal, state or local tax audit, however, the Organization's tax returns for 2012 and subsequent years are open to examination. The Organization does not expect the total amount of unrecognized tax benefits to significantly change in the next 12 months. The Organization would recognize interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits in interest and income tax expense, respectively. A tax position is recognized as a benefit only if it is more likely than not that the tax position would be sustained in a tax examination, with a tax examination being presumed to occur. The amount recognized is the largest amount of tax benefit that is greater than 50% likely of being realized on examination. For tax position not meeting the more likely than not test, no tax benefit is recorded.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part III, Line 1 The organization's mission	Advance Illinois is guided by the conclusion that driving significant improvement in education outcomes requires a comprehensive approach over many years. Specifically (1) Significant progress improving student outcomes takes many years to achieve. While student performance can improve immediately following education policy changes, the systemic nature of reform means it generally takes states one to two decades to achieve meaningful growth in outcomes, with more progress left to be done (2) A student-centric reform agenda is a necessary foundation for improvement. Policies that prioritize students and focus on key levers, such as quality early education, high standards and rigorous curriculums, school accountability, and talented educators, are essential in laying the groundwork for continuous improvement (3) But passing these policies is not enough, implementation and evaluation with fidelity must follow, with support at the community and state levels. Legislative wins are a step one, but to realize impact states must see policies all the way through implementation and evaluation, which requires local and state leadership and support (4) Funding adequacy and equity are individually important, but more powerful together. States that have high levels of fairly-distributed funding have risen to the top nationally in overall student performance (5) Beyond these fundamentals, additional measures are necessary to close achievement gaps and ensure all students are college- and career-ready. Even leading states face large achievement gaps and underprepared students, suggesting that student support strategies require increased attention and more targeted intervention.
