990 Schedule F, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 2	As with Humanity United Action's (HUA) domestic grants, before making a grant to a grantee outside the U S , HUA performs due diligence, including anti-terrorism checks and a formal "pre-grant inquiry," as defined in the federal tax regulations, when required In addition, HUA determines whether the proposed grantee is eligible for 501(c)(3) public charity equivalency status that would permit the foreign grantee to be treated as a U S public charity for reporting purposes To demonstrate eligibility for equivalency status, foreign grantees are required to provide extensive documentation related to their foreign tax status, governance and operations Grantees (U S and non-U S) are also required to enter into a detailed written grant agreement that governs the use of grant funds and includes financial and narrative reporting requirements, including heightened "expenditure responsibility" restrictions and reporting requirements for those grantees that are not eligible for public charity equivalency status Grantee reporting under the grant agreement is reviewed and approved by program and grants management staff, and these approvals are documented The grantee's written reporting under the grant agreement is frequently supplemented by meetings, phone conversations and emails between HUA and grantee staff, as well as site visits by HUA staff to non-U S grantees
