Form 990 (2018)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Financially supported various ministries of the Christian Church in Niger and Burkina Faso as well as other Christian organizations. Financial resources were utilized to provide Christian education to impoverished children and young people, support the training and ministries of national pastors and churches, provide healthcare, care for orphans, and development projects. Thousands of people were impacted by these efforts. MADALA also carried out ministry evaluations, MADALA officers traveled to West Africa to help the National Christian Foundation strengthen partnerships and evaluate needs of local churches, ministries and organizations. The executive director was employed to evaluate and supervise projects funded in West Africa by MADALA. MADALA maintained an office and performed administrative work in order to evaluate and responsibly give to the ministries of West Africa.
