Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

The Fusebox Festival presents more than 60 events in 5 days across 19 locations in Austin, TX each spring. The festival regularly serves 200 local, national, and international artists, and reached 20,000 people generally. Each festival is the culmination of two years of planning and fundraising.

Explanation: Fusebox Festival underwent significant employee turnover during the 2019 calendar year due to certain long term employees leaving for other opportunities followed by subsequent individuals leaving as a result of family planning needs. The bookkeeping and related tax reporting was managed by the series of individuals who left the organization and those functions were temporarily managed by volunteer and contract labor individuals. Due to the high rate and timing of the turnover the organization was unable to file its 2018 990 in a timely manner. The organization has remediated this issue by recently hiring a third party professional bookkeeping and tax preparation service that will manage all future bookkeeping and tax preparation requirements. The recently hired service is currently working on the 2019 990 and we fully expect to meet all deadlines required for an on time filling of the 990 in the future.
