Part III Statement of Program Service AccomplishmentsCheck if Schedule O contains a response or note to any line in this Part III ☒1 Briefly describe the organization's mission

PSP's mission is to improve outcomes for low-income students and respond to the demand of families by expanding access to great schools. Primarily, we do this by helping to increase the number of high-performing charter, district and private schools in the city of Philadelphia, with an emphasis on creating opportunities for low-income students to enroll. We raise philanthropic funds and invest those funds in school operators and people that have the ability to create and maintain great schools across the city. Also, we activate parents to demand great schools in their communities and facilitate the sharing of best practices among school leaders.

Form 990 (2018)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

GREAT SCHOOLS FUND PSP makes grants to school operators to support the launch of new schools, the expansion of great schools, and the turnaround of low-performing schools. The grants help to offset startup, growth and/or transformation costs, they can be disbursed at once or across several years, but they are generally not intended to cover recurring operating expenditures. The Organization conducts extensive due diligence on grant applicants before approving grants, including examination of quantitative data on academic outcomes, analysis of student attendance, attrition, graduation and matriculation data, financial analysis, review of strategic growth plans, assessment of organizational leadership capacity, interviews with school leaders and board members, and school site visits. PSP also makes incubation grants, which are smaller grants to support leadership teams and/or partnerships engaged in strategic planning and development for a new school, an expansion or a turnaround, and technical assistance grants, which support grantees in addressing discrete challenges and opportunities.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

TALENT AND COLLABORATION PSP aims to leverage best practices by convening leaders from all types of schools and facilitating collaboration in the creation and implementation of initiatives to enable schools to operate more effectively. Much of PSP's efforts in this arena relate to the recruiting and training of school leaders and teachers. In collaboration with school operators, PSP manages several projects focused on developing and strengthening the skills of school leaders and teachers. PSP sometimes makes grants to universities and other partners to facilitate the launch of such projects.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Equitable Enrollment Initiatives- PSP endeavors to develop strategies to make the process of applying to schools easier for families, who must contend with a complex assortment of application processes across the city's more than 400 K-12 schools. In 2018, PSP facilitated the launch of an online standard application system that enables families to apply to any of more than 70 Philadelphia public charter schools on a single website. This initiative is called Apply Philly Charter.
