Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Work Teams Work teams bring ministry and capacity building to the programs in Colombia that provide opportunity for people to forge their path out of poverty The work teams initiative immerses groups of caring individuals in a one week charitable experience in Colombia Work teams support ongoing projects in the areas of education, child protection, income generation, community development, housing, health and humanitarian aid Projects included ministry, medical outreach, infrastructure maintenance and repair, family outreach, train the trainer and more

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Capacity Building Conviventia is a grassroots development organization with a strong track record of program design and delivery. Drawing upon lessons, tools, strategies and best practices and making them available to organizations and community groups both domestically and in the region. Through the process of knowledge exchange and training, the capacity building program increases the capacity and overall effectiveness of the development and relief efforts of civil society organizations.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

EDUCATION Conviventia supports education programs designed to meet the needs of vulnerable populations, providing opportunities for social and economic solutions to children trapped in poverty. The higher education fund facilitates access, for exceptional graduates from the CDA schools, to loans to cover expenses of their higher education studies. The loan repayments begin once the graduate has found a job, so that funds are available for additional students in the future. The sponsorship program provides support for the delivery of education to students in grades pre-school through high school.
