Grantmaker's Description of How Grants are Used	The Foundation requires organizations who receives grants through the competitive grants program to submit progress and final grant reports. These reports detail progress of the project and how funds were expended. The Foundation will also visually observe certain significant grants associated with capital projects. All grants to individuals through the scholarship program are distributed directly to the educational institution. Allowable uses of the scholarship funds are explained to the institutions as well as requirements for unused funds. Although students benefit through the scholarship program, no distributions are made directly to an individual.
