Form 990 (2018)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

The Department of Housing and Urban Development has established Housing First model calling for housing clients first and providing wrap around services. The HUD recommended emphasis remains placing homeless individuals in permanent housing and coordinating access to required services. First Step Communities continues to support this model and endeavors to develop solutions that have practical application. Unfortunately, the gap between secured funding for more affordable housing and the increasing numbers of homeless individuals persists. Our targeted populations, chronically homeless adults, prove to be the least likely to locate housing and services. The overall mission of First Step Communities continues to be to provide shelter and services to this vulnerable population. In doing this, FSC and its collaborative partners will help the target group of individuals as they move through the interim services provided. Our desired outcome remains to prepare this population for rapid rehousing programs that align with the Housing First Model and prioritize a successful transition to permanent housing. Accomplishments in 2018 include Pilgrimage Program. FSC administered the Pilgrimage Shelter Program through a period of transformation as several partner congregations had to step back due to resource constraints. Guests continued to be active volunteers in the program as members of the homeless leadership team. Grants from Kaiser Permanente and Ann Land Bertha Herschel Memorial Fund bolstered this primarily volunteer program. Winter Sanctuary. First Step Communities again administered the Winter Sanctuary Program for the County of Sacramento. FSC increased its work with collaborative nonprofit and county agencies. Collaborators brought in legal support, medical care and referrals and psychiatric support and counseling. At the conclusion of the program, FSC ran a two-week pilot case management and rehousing center and moved 53 individuals indoors. This led to the joint city and county funding of the North A Street Rehousing Program. North A Street Rehousing Program. After a pilot in April 2018, this program was funded and opened in September 2018. A sanitation component was added to the program to open restrooms to the high density homeless population in the area served. The program is funded through the end of 2019. FSC Interim Homeless Community Program. FSC is currently working on several village plans with different Sacramento Council members. The villages have an identified site, support of council members and the Mayor of Sacramento, and anticipate construction in early 2020.
