Small business and women's development programs. Promoting women's active participation in their community, building self-esteem, training and developing income generating businesses to improve the quality of life of women and their families. Ongoing support and development were provided to 20 women's businesses, directly benefitting 148 women and their families. Our biggest achievements included successful organic cultivation of the Jiquilite Plant and processing indigo dye, the launching of an artisanal ice cream business, the process of business plans with Jiquilite Women in Romero Community, Sausage a la Vista in Ilobasco and Leslie's Bakery in Comasagua. Seed money was provided to Creative Hands Workshop in Estanzuelas for sewing and embroidery supplies to be able to expand their market, and the Coconut candy business on the Isla Espiritu Santo expanded their market. CIS supports 16 artisan workshops which generate income for 75 individuals by selling their products in our store and filling internet orders of high quality artisan products including purses and accessories, coconut jewelry, organic coffee, painted wooden products, cards and jewelry made from recycled materials, indigo dyed clothing, embroidery, and other items.
