Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	All officers, directors and staff members are covered by this policy. The Administrator and Board of Directors review the policies and determine whether or not a conflict exists. No conflicts have occurred. If there is a conflict of interest, the chairperson of the Board of Directors shall, if appropriate, appoint a disinterested person or committee to investigate alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement. After exercising due diligence, the Board shall determine whether a more advantageous transaction or arrangement could be obtained that would not give rise to conflict. If a more advantageous transaction or arrangement is not reasonably attainable under circumstances that would not give rise to a conflict of interest, the Board shall determine, by majority vote of the disinterested directors whether the transaction or arrangement is in the Organization's best interest for its own benefit and whether to enter into the transaction or arrangement in conformity with such determination. An interested person may make a presentation to the Board, but after such presentation, he or she shall leave the meeting during the discussion of, and the vote on, the transaction or arrangement that result in the conflict of interest.
