In order to focus on the cause of substance abuse, there were care network meetings and ministerial association meetings to improve spiritual and psychosocial health. Senior health fairs provide a good opportunity to reach out to the community about acknowledging early signs of sepsis, stroke, assessment of fall-risk, and information about managing chronic diseases to help seniors remain independent in their homes. Obesity is a major issue in our community and support groups hosted by SSM Health Weight Management services are a great opportunity for our community to remain motivated.
