COMMENTS PART III: All revenue and expenses of the Association are related to program services. This includes funds expended for liability insurance and web site hosting services, and related web services. The Association has no employees.

COMMENTS PART V: As indicated, the Association has no employees.

COMMENTS PART VI: The bylaws of the Association are available on the Association's web site. Monthly meetings of the officers of the Association are published on the web site, as well. Financial information regarding the Association is available upon request. The Executive Council is comprised of nine (9) persons, but only eight (8) of these individuals are voting members of the Council. The Association's bylaws stipulate the authority of the Council.

COMMENTS PART VII: Persons listed in Part VII were members of the Executive Council in 2018; the individual signing this document (on page 1) is the current President of the Association. As noted, the Association has no employees. The Association has an agreement with an independent contractor to provide management services, including to act as the Association's Executive Director. The independent contractor is not authorized to vote on governance decisions of the Association. The fee paid the independent contractor is apportioned among expenses of the Association's programs.
