Site visits are conducted annually by the Executive Director of the Foundation with each Area Coordinator who is responsible for overseeing the nutrition programs in his or her country. Each Area Coordinator has a handful of Site Coordinators (volunteers) who report back on each individual location where the daily programs take place. The Area Coordinator submits and compiles all the data into a report that is sent quarterly to the Director. The reports indicate product usage, photos, and testimonials from the recipients.

The following criteria are applied to applications who determine if a program or individual qualifies for Reliv Kalogris Foundation product assistance:

1. The program (individual) is endorsed by the Area Coordinator responsible for distribution of product
2. The program has a direct nutritional impact
3. There is a plan for sustainability once the program begins
4. There is a plan in place and capacity for regular reporting and program development

The Executive Director determines the number of recipients through quarterly reporting from the Area Coordinators.
