990 Schedule A, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part II, Line 17B	As noted on Page 1 of Form 990 for 2018, the Scottish Rite Foundation of Missouri was originally formed in 1946 and has been functioning since that time to provide charitable services for the benefit of youth throughout the state of Missouri. As noted on Form 990 Part III, page 2, the Foundation's mission is to enhance the lives of children of Missouri by actively embracing high social, moral and spiritual values through the several activities of the Foundation. Descriptive information is set forth in Part III, at line 4a, 4b and 4c described in the preservation grants to provide financial assistance to existing Scottish Rite Preservation Associates in various cities in Missouri to be expended exclusively for charitable exempt purpose on the basis of which said local associations have theretofore received recognition as tax exempt entities pursuant to Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, scholarships to grant to a limited number of undergraduate students to enable them to attend accredited colleges or universities, and to provide financial support for the Ritecare Language Disorder Clients also recognized by the IRS as tax exempt entities pursuant to Section 501(c)(3) of the IRC for the treatment of childhood language disorders. During the most recent recession, when public education budgets were being cut, the Foundation provided about 30 scholarships per year to deserving men and women. The cost of higher education has continued to increase the need for such educational assistance for the benefit of highly qualified young men and women of the state of Missouri and continues to justify continuing financial support which the Foundation is seeking to provide within the limits of its available resources. Funds expended for this purpose during fiscal year 2018 for 16 scholarships amounted to $15,500. The scholarships program, which has been operated by the Foundation for many years, provides undergraduate scholarships each year to Missouri high school graduates attending accredited colleges or universities of their choice. No affiliation with the fraternity is required of the students, their parents or guardians. Pursuant to a donor's written directions, income payments from an educational fund were also made to several designated schools for the benefit of needy students or for acquisition of needed education equipment. Through the Foundation's grants, several hundred children under the age of ten suffering from language and hearing disorders have received the benefit of free care and training from trained professionals. In response to the pressing need for such social services, the Foundation has managed to provide increasing financial support. During fiscal year 2018, the Foundation continued its expenditures to the associated Ritecare Language Disorder Clinics located in various parts of Missouri in the amount of $77,951. All of the Ritecare Clinics were and are recognized by the IRS as exempt entities pursuant to the provisions of S

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	The foundation adopted Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 740-10, Income Taxes, as it relates to uncertain tax positions and has evaluated their tax positions taken for all open tax years. The foundation is not currently under audit nor has the foundation been contacted by the IRS. Based on the evaluation of the foundation's income tax positions, management believes all positions would be upheld under an examination. Therefore, no provision of the effects of uncertain tax positions has been recorded as of December 31, 2018.
