Senior Nutrition Program We have found that senior citizens who are able to maintain good physical and mental health, or regaing that health following illness or surgery, are more able to continue to live safely in the home of their choice Our program aids seniors in achieving this goal through education, good nutrition and a balanced diet that helps prevent malnutrition, provided daily by deliverly of meals through a center or to their home We operate two congregate meal sites which serve a daily meal and provide opportunity for socialization with others while the mobile meals aspect of the program provide for home delivery of meals to seniors and persons with diabilities who are homebound

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Early Care and Education Program This program offers parents a secure feeling and peace of mind while they are at work knowing that their children are safe and supervised by caring, knowledgeable educators while learning skills needed for school readiness and success. Approximately, 90 of the children in our program are from families in the low-income census per HUD guidelines. Our youth program provides children with a safe place to go, adult role models to guide and teach them appropriate behaviors when interacting with others and the opportunity to learn and practice proper social and emotional skills. We also provide opportunities to explore their own uniqueness and learn to interact with others in a variety of activities including an after-school recreation program, tutoring, Olympic style weight lifting instruction, and youth dances.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

In-Home and Professional Medical Services Program This program provides medical and caregiver services to seniors and persons with disabilities who want to remain in their own homes. Aspects of these services are housekeeping, personal care, respite, medical services, support for consumer directed services and a 24 hour safety support lifeline

X 2	The Organization accounts for uncertain tax positions in accordance with the provisions of FASB Codification Topic 740, Income Taxes. Topic 740 clarifies the accounting and recognition for income tax positions taken or expected to be taken in the Organizations income tax returns. Under Topic 740, the Organization is required to report information regarding its exposure to various tax positions taken by the Organization. The Organization has filed all required tax returns in the required jurisdictions in a timely manner. The Organizations income and tax filings are subject to audit by various taxing authorities. The Organizations Federal Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax Form 990s for the years ended December 31, 2015 through 2017 remain subject to examination by the Internal Revenue Service, generally for three years after they are filed. Management evaluates the Organizations tax positions annually for any potential changes or issues that may result in uncertainty in the accounting for income taxes and makes a determination regarding their likelihood of being upheld under review. Management has reviewed all sources of revenue and believes that none of the activities have produced income subject to tax on unrelated business income. Management believes that the Organizations operations have been conducted in accordance with its tax-exempt status, that all tax positions have been addressed and that there are no unrecorded tax liabilities. The Organization did not record any interest or penalties in the Statement of Activities or Statement of Financial Position as of and during the year ended December 31, 2018.
