Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part V, Line 4	The Institute plans to use endowment funds to reduce the amount of current year operating funds that it needs to raise in any given year To that end, the Institute established a p ermanently restricted endowment fund with the Alford Challenge Grant in the amount of $1 4 M Once the permanently restricted fund created by the grant reaches the full $1 4M, the I nstitute will begin using proceeds from the fund's principal to offset the cost of 90 of t he 540 program participants each year It is also the Institute's intention to hold aside matching funds to create a second fund of $1 4M that will fund an additional 90 program pa rticipants annually Under this current plan, annual fundraising to raise operating funds should be reduced by the cost of 180 program participants The coverage of program partici pant costs by the endowment should grow as the Institute finds other ways to grow the endo wment in the future

The Institute qualifies for the charitable contribution deduction under Section 170(b)(1)(A) and has been classified as an organization that is not a private foundation. Accordingly, no provision for income taxes has been recorded in the financial statements. Tax-exempt organizations could be required to record an obligation for income taxes as the result of a tax position they have historically taken on various tax exposure items including unrelated business income or tax status. Under guidance issued by the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB), assets and liabilities are established for uncertain tax positions taken or positions expected to be taken in income tax returns when such positions are judged to not meet the "more-likely-than-not" threshold, based upon the technical merits of the position. Estimated interest and penalties, if applicable, related to uncertain tax positions are included as a component of income tax expense. The Institute has evaluated the position taken on its filed tax returns. The Institute has not taken, nor does it expect to take any uncertain tax positions in any income tax return.
