PART VI, line 2 > Each and every director on the board of directors has a family relationship to every other member of the board. Also, one of the scholars contracted to engage in research for the organization has a family relationship to the members of the board of directors.

PART VI, line 8b > There are no committees with such authority.

PART VI, line 11b > IRS Form 990 and the accompanying schedules were completed two months before it was due. A copy of the completed forms were sent to each board member for their review. They were invited to examine them and to ask any questions that they raised.

Part VI, Section C, line 19 > The organization was ready and willing to make all of these available to anyone who requested them.

PART IX, line 11(g) > This represents compensation paid to a total of sixteen individuals. Fifteen individuals were contracted to tutor children in the Education Augmentation Program and one individual was contracted to engage in biblical research for the organization.

PART XI, line 9 > This represents the amount by which the net assets would otherwise fail to reconcile. The discrepancy appears to be due to a mistake that was made a few years ago when the books were first being set up. I lack the requisite competency in accounting to be able to discover what mistake was made and how it arose. It would appear that $ 131 of this amount ($ 149) reverses the discrepancy that seemed to exist last year (2017). That leaves an unaccounted for discrepancy of $ 18 this year.
