people with developmental disabilities and their families and care providers on how to connect with their state legislators. Most expenses for these events were paid for by the Oregon Developmental Disabilities Coalition with the exception of $45 in parking costs incurred by Creating Opportunities throughout the course of the legislative session, and Part 11A 11 - GO Project coordination also involves limited administrative support to the Oregon Developmental Disabilities Coalition such as email monitoring, social media management, website updates and policy committee participation to develop and disseminate advocacy information.

Creating Opportunities was also contracted through the Oregon Council on Developmental Disabilities to coordinate the Alliance for Early Intervention (www.oregonaei.org) to provide information, training and tools to families and educators of young children with disabilities to help them understand the legislative process and encourage them to connect with their state legislators to share personal stories about how public policy or budget decisions may impact them. This contract work also includes sending email newsletters to subscribers, publishing fact sheets on policy issues, hosting legislative advocacy training events, email monitoring, social media management, website updates and policy committee participation to develop and disseminate advocacy information. Alliance for Early Intervention Coordination represents approximately 2% of the work done by Creating Opportunities. Creating Opportunities does not endorse any political candidate.

Part III #29 Program Overview & Accomplishments for Employer Resource Connection (formerly Steps to Success with Personal Support Workers) -

Oregonians with developmental disabilities who are eligible to receive support in daily living activities may employ Personal Support Workers (PSWs) for this support. The Employer Resource Connection program assists those eligible to hire PSWs through Developmental Disability Services by customizing program tools to make an Employee Handbook for PSWs. This program provides information to the Employer, which is most often the person with a disability or their family, on how to effectively recruit, train, and manage their employee(s) so they can make the most of their services.

- Provided 182 people with direct one on one customized support. Of those, there were 109 new participants to the Employer Resource Connection program. We provided customized support by identifying their rights and responsibilities as an employer, by creating an effective job announcement to
