Part V Supplemental Information

Provide the information required by Part I, line 2 (monitoring of funds); Part I, line 3, column (f) (accounting method; amounts of investments vs. expenditures per region); Part II, line 1 (accounting method); Part III (accounting method); and Part III, column (c) (estimated number of recipients), as applicable. Also complete this part to provide any additional information. See instructions.

All grant recipients complete a grant application, provide financial reports, are visited by a representative of Change a Path, and sign a grant agreement agreeing to use the funds as detailed in their grant application. At 6 months, a CAP Advisory Committee member will have a phone call or in person visit with grantee to ensure funds are being used in accordance with the agreement and discuss any developments in staffing, finances, and programs. At year-end the grantee provides a report detailing how the funds were utilized, the impact of the funds, and possibly how they would utilize another grant. Additional communication methods, such as social media and email, are used in order to maintain and build a supportive and trusting relationship between Change a Path and grantees.

The Change a Path Advisory Committee reviews grant applications and grantee budgets, income statements and balance sheets.

The Advisory Committee also reviews supporting documentation to prove that the organizations are recognized as charities by their home country.
