Part III Statement of Program Service AccomplishmentsCheck if Schedule O contains a response or note to any line in this Part III ☐1 Briefly describe the organization's mission.

Old Friends Club cultivates joy in the lives of adults with cognitive challenges and nourishes the wellbeing of family caregivers. We create a place of friendship and belonging where people living with Alzheimer's, stroke or other cognitive changes meet with peers to stay active around supported activities, while their family caregivers get a healthy break. The programs improve quality of life, help people remain in their home and community longer, and connect family caregivers to support and resources.

Social, dementia-focused, small-group respite programs

OFC started in Carnation in September 2015 and has grown to four Clubs, adding programs in Kirkland, Sammamish and Bellevue.

We will expand further to meet the need in more neighborhoods. Each respite program can serve up to 12 - 15 people per day.

At each Club, program participants are welcomed as Club Members, fostering a sense of belonging. Each person is seen and heard and knows they are valued. Experienced staff and trained volunteers help Members engage in animated discussions and activities despite the challenges in communication and reasoning that accompany these diseases. Group members share stories, play word or or card games, create art, enjoy music, get moving with dance or exercise, share a meal, and find ways to be part of the community. At least one of the two staff members at each location is trained to assist with personal needs to allow Members to remain with the group longer as diseases progress.

46 participants were served in the four programs for total of 2616 individual days of care provided in 2018.

Each individual day of care also represents a 5-hour respite for the family caregivers.
