Form 990 (2018)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

While the core of Jacob's Ladder, Inc programs is an annual summer enrichment program, held this year at Christ Church Episcopal School in Middlesex County, there are other parts of the enrichment program which are held throughout the year. This year the program included 61 climbers. The summer program is held on a formal campus environment. There are other field trips during the year as part of follow up activities to make sure the young people are staying on track. Resident advisors serve as mentors, contract teachers are hired for the education programs and senior staff combine with these groups to assist with the role of life coaches. In addition to the summer programs, Jacob's Ladder staff serve to follow up on student progress through one on one and group meetings. This year, summer staffers were paid as W2 employees and instructors were paid as contractors, given the short span of time they are performing services for Jacob's Ladder Climbers Group meetings may be combined with a field trip or travel to cultural events. These group meetings plus one on one follow up help the climbers to stay on track with their goals and to engage with staff, alumnae, peers and prospective Climbers. Two brand new vans, purchased with grants in late 2015, were again used in transporting Climbers and so the cost of operating the vans and depreciation increased on those vehicles critical to the mission. Jacob's Ladder, Inc hired an Executive Director in 2017 and the employee relationship was terminated as the entity continued its search for a better fit for the long term. A new Executive Director has been hired in 2018. The offices of Jacob's Ladder, Inc relocated to a rented office space in Urbanna, Virginia. As a result some additional office expense was incurred related to this move. Additional equipment was purchased for Ms. Ruffa and Mrs. Albaugh to support their efforts. Two laptops, printer, copier and shelving were purchased as fixed assets for the move. Mrs. Castrodale was hired to serve as High School Advocate for the program, which is a new position. $38,800 of grant money was deferred to be expensed in 2019. Unrealized losses on the portfolio were recovered within two months of year end in 2019, so those losses were temporary in nature. Unused videography grant funds were deferred into 2019, but $1,300 of the $5,000 grant monies were used in 2018.
