The Green Olive Tree is a Thrift store. The community donates their items they no more care to have in their homes. These items include small household items, clothes, shoes, sports equipment, bed linens, dishes, toys, etc. These items are sorted and priced to resale. Donations in kind to libraries and other agencies such as Equipping the Saints, Goodwill, Salvation Army, and Veterans to our estimations of $12,038.71. Incoming donation bags were approximately 17,912 bags and outgoing bags 5,754 to the trash. Equipping the Saints got 61,439 pounds or 30.82 tons. 510 boxes of books were donated to Regional library. The merchandise given from the store included needy families, schools, churches, mission trips, and giving helping hands to others. We sell over gently used sports equipment to a sports store in Charlottesville since they can get a higher price than we can. We also try consignment shops since they get a higher price than us. There are many families who depend on our store to clothe their children since we are the "best buy in Albemarle County." We have customers who drive great distances of over 100 miles to come to our specialty weeks. We feel blessed in our success as a business that has been in operation for 40 years (this year). It has been divinely blessed for the good we are trying to do.

Our reserves are preparing us for relocation in a few years.

We are helping the county, our environment, and many needy families who are struggling to make ends meet.
