Name: GIRLS WRITE NOW INC

Form 990 (2018)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

THE NEEDGirls Write Now serves a culturally and educationally diverse community of mentees 90% girls of color, 70% immigrant or first generation, 25% LGBT/non-conforming, and 90% high need These underserved girls, who have long been negatively impacted by the lack of resources and opportunities in public schools, face significant challenges to educational and professional success They often lack the guidance and support from a consistent, caring adult, and most come to Girls Write Now with low confidence in their talents and accomplishments Unfortunately, in our city and our country, girls of color are rarely given the guidance, care, and systemic support they need to graduate from high school and access viable college or career opportunities, perpetuating cycles of poverty and disempowerment Girls Write Now is uniquely positioned to help correct these longstanding inequalities MODELA television writer and a high school student unpack laptops at a coffee shop and debate narrative structure A Pulitzer Prize-winning journalist breaks down her technique to an audience of eager young women A writer finally gets the cadence of her poem just right and her heart beats a little faster with pride This is Girls Write Now Girls Write Now pairs underserved young women with professional women writers as lifelong mentors and role models We also welcome them into a diverse community working closely with them to navigate their professional and personal goals Through one-to-one mentoring with professional women writers and media makers, multimedia/multi-genre workshops, publication, presentation, and leadership opportunities, college and career preparation, and wellness wraparound services, we inspire women to share their craft and empower girls to find their voices and tell their stories Operating at the intersection of literature, art, and technology, Girls Write Now serves more than 600 mentees annually through our core programs We are also a founding member of the STARS Citywide Girls Initiative, collectively reaching more than 5,000 girls in every single district of New York City As the first writing and mentoring organization for girls, Girls Write Now has been a nationally award-winning leader in arts education for over 20 years, and continues to innovate ways to elevate the voices of girls who are often not heard or worse, silenced IMPACTGirls Write Now consistently demonstrates that our approach is effective in turning around the high rate of failure often experienced by economically disadvantaged young women of color due to systemic inequality and injustice 100% of our senior girls go to college armed with writing and multimedia portfolios and a strong sense of self more than half with awards and scholarships Our mentees are published in outlets including The New York Times, Newsweek, and BuzzFeed, and our award-winning anthologies, perform at Lincoln Center and the United Nations, and earn hundreds of Scholastic Art & Writing Awards Girls Write Now has a long track record of collecting quantitative and qualitative data showing successful outcomes from our programs, most dramatically for those with the highest need There is a market demand for stellar communication and Girls Write Now is meeting it, making girls creative thinkers, clear writers, and competitive candidates for the trails they choose to blaze TRACK RECORD OF SUCCESSGirls Write Now is New Yorks first and only writing and mentoring organization for girls The organization has been distinguished three times by the White House as one of the nations top after school programs, and twice by the Nonprofit Excellence Awards as one of New York Citys top ten nonprofits Girls Write Now has received the Youth INC Innovators Award, NBCUniversals 21st Century Solutions prize for social innovation through media arts, and the Diane von Furstenberg (DVF) Peoples Choice nomination At the close of the Obama administration, Girls Write Now received the White House Champion of Change Award for creating opportunities for girls from marginalized communities so that all young people can reach their full potential Girls Write Now is regularly named as a top place to volunteer by Time Out New York, New York Magazine, Buzzfeed, Bustle, and more, and has been covered by countless other news outlets like The Nation, Forbes, The Wall Street Journal, NBC Nightly News, ABC Good Morning, Glamour, Elle, Upworthy, and more STRATEGIC GROWTHAs we embark on our third decade, we believe our mission has never been more relevant Girls Write Now is committed to working with the larger community to rise above the race and income-based inequalities of the nations school system and workforce We are currently rolling out an ambitious strategic growth plan, created with input from 100+ stakeholders The plan outlines our initiatives to expand the number of girls we serve, deepen our programming through integration of creative, critical, and digital skill-building, and expand our alumnae services to support girls through college and career creating a pipeline to the industries in need of their talents
