Form 990 (2018)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Elpis Enterprises operate social enterprises to provide employment readiness training specifically designed to meet the unique needs of young people between 16 & 23 years of age who are homeless or precariously housed. By focusing on the development of employment readiness (soft) skills, trainees are prepared to be successful in any workplace setting or career path. Our social enterprises allow us to use the power of the small business environment in preparing trainees for the broader labor market. This includes: a) offering trainees a full entrepreneurial experience, b) providing trainees with a paid work experience in a supportive and hands-on learning environment. Our career counseling guides trainees in developing a career pathway that aligns with their interests and the local labor market needs. Our business areas are: 1) a full-service customized imprinted apparel business (screen printing & embroidery), 2) a woodworking business (cedar bird feeders and other products out of donated recycled cedar fences), 3) an e-commerce site that allows users to design their own screenprinting product or purchase one of several ready-made products that support Elpis and other Twin Cities nonprofit organizations. Additionally, each year our trainees facilitate 120-150 community-based experiential screen printing or woodworking workshops with 3,000 attendees. While we operate screen printing and woodworking enterprises, we do not expect trainees to pursue careers in these fields. Our focus is on employment readiness skills. In 2018, we provided employment readiness training with a paid work experience to 26 trainees. Most were individuals of color. Of young people completing our program: -65% obtained meaningful outcomes (employment and/or continued their education) -80% achieved improvement and/or proficiency in at least 10 out of 12 employment readiness skill areas. 92% would recommend our program to others. Organizational capacity building achievements in 2018 that will maximize our impact on trainees in years to come include purchasing and installing: -our first automated screen printing press. Besides allowing us to offer new products, the enhanced production capacity allows our trainees to spend more time developing and pursuing post-Elpis career building opportunities without impacting earned income from our enterprises. -our first embroidery machine. HipPyFeet.com and 7 other organizations are using Elpis for their embroidery needs in just the first six months after installing the machine.
