Return Reference	Explanation
PART I, LINE 2	The Foundation distributes funds through four programs: Scholarships, Internship grants, Risk Manager in Residence Program Grants and General Grants. Each program has a unique application, which is reviewed and evaluated by a committee. The criteria for each program can be found on the Foundations website (www.spencered.org). For scholarships: The award check is made out jointly to the recipient and the university. The funds are to be applied by the Universitys Bursar first to tuition, books, and risk management/insurance curriculum-related expenses, second, the funds are to be applied to room and board expenses. For internship grants: The award check is made out to the applicants organization. Applicants are required to share who they hired (resume and transcript) and they need to complete a final report. For risk manager in residence grants: The award check is made out to the applying university. The applicant is required to complete a final report (including final budget) and reimburse the risk manager for expenses. For general grants: The award check is made out to the applicants organization. Applicants are required to complete a final report (including final budget).
