The sculpture was received as a contribution and appraised in 2006 for $40,000. The sculpture is held for public exhibition. The Organization has adopted the policy of not capitalizing collections in its financial statements. Accordingly, no collection items are recognized as assets, whether they are purchased or received as a donation. Purchases of collection items reduce net assets in the period purchased. Proceeds from sales or insurance recoveries are recorded as increases in net assets when received. Although the financial statements do not disclose the cumulative cost of collections, each of the items in the collection is cataloged, preserved, and cared for, and activities verifying their existence and assessing their condition are performed regularly.
