Transportation Planning (50%) - The Center continued its ongoing participation in the local transportation planning process for Jefferson and Shelby counties with its Executive Director serving on the Transportation Citizens Committee of the Birmingham Metropolitan Planning Organization. The Center also continued its involvement in a coalition to educate the public on the benefits of completing a major highway development project in Jefferson County, the Northern Beltline (Beltline). The organization was founded in October 2008 as an Alabama nonprofit corporation, the Coalition for Regional Transportation (CRT), and the Center's Executive Director serves on CRT's Board of Directors. The Beltline, a limited access expressway from I-59/20 west of the City of Birmingham around the northern fringes of the Birmingham metropolitan area to I-59 northeast of the City of Birmingham, has been considered since the 1960's when the Interstate Highway System in the region was developed. The Beltline is designated as an Appalachian Regional Commission Development Corridor (Corridor X-1) and is proposed to be a part of the nation's interstate highway system as I-422. The Beltline will provide transportation improvements for the region, traffic congestion relief, air quality improvements and public safety improvements in the area. Construction of the Beltline will provide a safer, more efficient highway facility where no convenient east-west access currently exists in northern Jefferson County.
