Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

ERF 2018 STATEMENT OF PROGRAM SERVICE ACCOMPLISHMENTS In 2018 Ecological Rights Foundation continued its work investigating and cleaning up sources of pollution to California's water ways and habitat degradation in the State's aquatic environments. This work includes water and sediment quality monitoring, pursuing cleanups of polluted industrial sites, protecting endangered species, and representing conservationist stakeholders interests in administrative proceedings and citizen enforcement actions under State and Federal environmental statutes. Ecological Rights Foundation's accomplishments this past year included settlements and compliance monitoring of agreements under the Federal Clean Water Act and Endangered Species Act, resulting in increased protection measures for California's water bodies and threatened/endangered species such as steelhead trout and sea otters. Ecological Rights Foundation participated in efforts to protect endangered marine mammals from fishing gear entanglements. Ecological Rights Foundation's Environmental Health, Awareness and Protection Campaign continued its successful work to reduce consumer exposures to toxic chemicals. Ecological Rights Foundation continued to focus on protecting consumers from reproductive harm caused by carbon monoxide and other chemical exposures, and the abatement of human health and ecological risks from dioxin and other highly toxic chemicals used to treat lumber products and utility poles. Ecological Rights Foundation updated and maintained its public information website and social media outlets.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c Explanation of Monitoring and Enforcement of Conflicts	Ecological Rights Foundation Conflict of Interest Policy (Monitoring & Enforcement) Each interested person has a duty to disclose to the Board all material facts regarding his/her, or its interest (including relevant affiliations) in a potential transaction. A conflict of interest is present when, in the judgment of the Board, an interested person's financial stake in the transaction is such that it reduces the likelihood that an insider's influence can be exercised impartially in the best interests of ERF (or as may otherwise be defined by applicable law). Interested persons who are members of the Board shall not be permitted to participate in deliberations or to vote, in determining whether the transaction is approved. The Board shall ascertain that all material facts regarding the transaction and the interested person's conflict of interest have been disclosed to the Board or Committee, and shall compile appropriate data to ascertain whether the proposed transaction is fair and reasonable to ERF. After exercising due diligence, which may include investigating alternatives that present no conflict, the Board or Committee shall determine whether the transaction is in ERF's best interest, for its own benefit, and whether it is fair and reasonable to ERF, the majority of disinterested members of the Board or Committee then in office may approve the transaction. If the transaction does not involve a director with a material financial interest, the transaction can be approved by the Board or Committee by majority vote of those present at a meeting for which quorum requirements have been met. Each director, corporate officer, and key employees of ERF, and others that ERF may identify, shall annually sign a statement, that 1) affirms that the person has received a copy of the conflict of interest policy, has read and understood the policy, and has agreed to comply with the policy, and 2) discloses the person's financial interests and family relationships that could give rise to conflicts of interest. To ensure that ERF operates in a manner consistent with its charitable purposes and its status as an organization exempt from federal income tax, the Board shall authorize and oversee an annual review of the administration of this conflict of interest policy. The review may be written or oral. The review shall consider the level of compliance with the policy, the continuing suitability of the policy, and whether the policy should be modified and improved.
