Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part IV, Line 2b	The organization maintains a residents' personal funds bank account for which the organization is responsible for personal funds of each resident that is a member of such fund. Resident participation in the fund is voluntary, and pursuant to applicable federal and state regulations the organization is required to accept any skilled nursing facility resident funds requested to be administered by the resident or the resident's representative/responsible party.

Part V, Line 4	The Organization's endowment funds are to be held in perpetuity, then income from such funds is restricted to support the maintenance and operations of the Organization, primarily for those individuals whose financial resources are less than the financial resources of 50% of the financial resources of those in the related community

Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America provide accounting and disclosure guidance about positions taken by an entity in its tax returns that might be uncertain. Touro believes that it has appropriate support for any tax positions taken, and management has determined that there are no uncertain tax positions that are material to the financial statements. Penalties and interest assessed by income taxing authorities, if any, would be included in income tax expense.
