Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Membership The Women's Energy Network of Houston was founded in 1994 with the purpose of fostering the development and advancement of women in energy by developing a strong network After years of being the sole woman involved in energy transactions, Women's Energy Network's founder believed that many women energy professionals were in the same position, but unable to connect with each other Years later, the Women's Energy Network remains committed to providing high caliber events and networking to its diverse membership from across the energy value chain

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Education and Networking - Luncheons, special events, webinars Each month Women's Energy Network hosts luncheons for 80-150 members and guests featuring exceptional leaders in energy or other relevant businesses Guests are also welcome Women's Energy Network offers growth opportunities to its members through participation on its Board of Directors and special programs Women's Energy Network is based on the model of the premier women's leadership development program, Leadership Texas, which focuses on networking, education, and community This includes all Houston area luncheons (energy corridor, downtown, and north side), webinars, and special events such as partnership events, wine tasting, networking event, etc

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

"YWE WEN's signature program, Young Women Energized, introduces high school girls to the energy industry and holds an annual event for them to engage with professional women and learn about various careers in the industry. This program was started in 2004. Tech Talks. This program was started in 2017. Market industry updates and training are discussed with members after work. This ensures women are educated and updated on current and upcoming market/industry trends, better positioning women within their companies.

Grantmaker's Description of How Grants are Used	Scholarship candidates submit an application, including an essay where the applicants express their views on a current issue or event in the energy industry. These applications are reviewed by a scholarship selection committee who select the recipients based on the students academic record, leadership initiatives, and quality of their essay. Each of the scholarship award winners is granted a scholarship of $2,000. The scholarship amount is held by WEN until the recipient begins college, which should be the fall following the year the scholarship was awarded. Each recipient is required to show an acceptance letter at their selected college. The award money of $2,000 each is sent directly to the school financial office, in the student's name, to ensure it is used for its intended purpose of financial support for college. The scholarship application process is open to all female high school seniors in the greater Houston area. The scholarship is advertised on the WEN website and in the WEN newsletter.
