Explanation: We were out of the country, thus the Form 8868 to file for an extension was mailed to IRS on May 17, two days after the required due date of May 15. We have not received an approval of the 8868 back from IRS so have made an effort to submit Form 990 as soon as possible to avoid penalties rather than waiting until the 6 month extension is up on November 15. We are a small organization not having extra resources so it is our hope that IRS will forego any penalties for late filing. This is the first time this has happened as we always either submit our Form 990 by the due date of May 15 or file for an extension by May 15 if it is needed.
