Community Organizing, Outreach and List Enhancement: MCV has continued to play in a role in the Montana Engagement Project (MEP), which serves as the collaboration between the Greater Yellowstone Coalition, Montana Wilderness Association, and Montana Wildlife Federation, and MCV. This partnership was created as a long-term communications and grassroots strategy designed to leverage popular support for shared values (such as public lands, clean water, wildlife, and rural/ag heritage) to create broad change in Montana that will lead to durable conservation and clean energy policies.

MEP has had success with its Mobilization Center, a full-time field operation that works on whatever issues the partners deem appropriate. The field operations continue to experiment with "deep canvassing" tactics that have successfully leveraged opposition for proposed oil and gas leases on the Big Hole and Beaverhead rivers. The partnership continues to meet with all the stakeholders periodically to evaluate the structure of the MEP and did so in the fall of 2018.

MCVEF also maintained strong non-fiduciary responsible chapter boards directing climate, clean energy and public lands work in Flathead County, Missoula County, Gallatin & Park County, and Yellowstone County. Flathead County's chapter focused on a municipal climate action plan. Missoula County and Gallatin County were also educating the public on proposed open space bonds that may be on the 2018 ballots. Yellowstone County was also focused on organizing events around our key topics of education, climate change, renewable energy and protecting our public lands.

MCVEF Non-partisan Civic Engagement and Ballot Measure: MCVEF continues to coordinate with state based organizations to maintain and protect Montanan's voting rights by developing strategy campaigns for various bills for the 2019 legislature affecting voter registration, voting by mail and access to polling places. MCV has continued to play in a role in the Montana Engagement Project (MEP), which serves as the collaboration between the Greater Yellowstone Coalition, Montana Wilderness Association, and Montana Wildlife Federation, and MCV. This partnership was created as a long-term communications and grassroots strategy designed to leverage popular support for shared values (such as public lands, clean water, wildlife, and rural/ag heritage) to create broad change in Montana that will lead to durable conservation and clean energy policies. MEP had great success with its Mobilization Center, a full-time field operation that works on whatever issues the partners deem appropriate. The field operations experimented with "deep canvassing" tactics that have successfully leveraged opposition for proposed oil and gas leases on the Big Hole and Beaverhead rivers. The partnership met with all the stakeholders periodically to evaluate the structure of the MEP in the fall of 2018.

Every odd numbered year MCVEF plays a large role in shaping conservation policy in the 90-day State Legislative Session. The fall of 2018 was the preparation and planning phase for the MCV State Legislative Program, which began on January 7th in 2019.

MCVEF facilitated the Conservation Working Group (CWG), which is a coalition of conservation non-profit organizations that work on policy during the Legislative Session. MCVEF staff organized the CWG in 2018 to begin establishing shared conservation priorities that the coalition could share with elected officials before the legislative session began in 2019. We shared these priorities with elected officials by hosting educational conference calls before the session and inviting CWG members to participate as well.

Conservation Policy Program: At the state level, MCVEF has a robust public policy and public education program related to public education and building support for policies to be pursued by the 2019 Montana State Legislature, including policy accountability and pre-session work.

As the facilitator of the Conservation Working Group (CWG), MCVEF worked with over 20 state conservation partners to create a policy agenda for the 2019 legislative session which includes three proactive bills focused on providing energy investment opportunities through commercial Property Assessed Clean Energy, reforming the Public Service Commission procedures to provide more transparency and investing in Montana's state parks and trails through a new funding mechanism via an additional voluntary vehicle registration fee. MCVEF has also worked to ensure CWG is ready to prevent rollbacks of existing public safeguards, wildlife protections and environmental standards during the legislative session.

MCVEF also continues to provide additional public policy services, including analysis of state legislative proposals; preparation and distribution of briefing papers; coordination of meetings with allied conservation and environmental groups; and weekly meetings with legislative allies and staff of the Governor's office.

At the federal level, MCVEF coordinated the Climate Action Coalition, working in partnership with the national League of Conservation Voters Education Fund and over a dozen conservation, public health and fish and wildlife groups. The key focus was to oppose any rollbacks of EPA rules that would accelerate climate change. MCVEF worked to educate citizens, local and statewide decision makers on the impacts of climate change through letters to the editor, guest commentaries, editorial board education, radio pieces and events.

Additionally during 2018, MCVEF worked to keep Senator Steve Daines accountable on his support of the Land and Water Conservation Fund (LWCF) through a multi-pronged campaign that included radio, newspaper ads, consistent social media posts, a radio piece and a billboard.

Every odd numbered year MCV EF plays a large role in shaping conservation policy in the 90-day State Legislative Session. The fall of 2018 was the preparation and planning phase for the MCV State Legislative Program, which began on January 7th in 2019.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4d - Other Program Services Description

Leadership and Staff Development: Staff and board members attended a fundraising training in Helena and attended and co-hosted the annual LCV national conference in Missoula. Several employees attended training in Washington and Alaska to aid with the MEP partnership. Individual staff members took continuing education courses to enhance their professional MCV tasks.
