Part III 1. As an Indigenous oriented organization, we utilize traditional knowledge, ceremonies, and a deep understanding of our communities to provide education and facilitate opportunities as we work to create health, prosperity, and capacity for ourselves, our families, and communities.

We work to continue the preservation of our culture, our Sacred Sites and Treaties made with Indigenous Communities.

We network with an organize Tribes to: Record and archive our traditional language indigenous rights and issues;

address sacred sites under attack; and Monitor the status of Treaties and water rights.

Engage Proactively toward Climate Adaptation.

We provide current data on how climate change impacts indigenous communities and facilitate proactive solutions.

Cultivate Green Pathways (Economic Development)

We provide support to indigenous organizations and individuals as they engage in and create economic opportunities based in conservation of resources, maximum utilization of renewable resources, sustainable food production, and the creation of food and resources sharing networks.

Build Individual and Community Capacity from Within.

We assist Dine Communities groups to build their organizational infrastructure, Promote good governance through Traditional Knowledge;

Provide Leadership Development training to individuals and community groups; and Expand opportunities for Indigenous women to participate in public life.
