Mission trip to Tanzania Africa

We sent two of our main volunteer teachers to Africa for a missions trip in Moshi Tanzania. Our expenses were simply for air travel as we had set up host families to provide us with room and board. We used this time over there to work with a International school to teach dance classes, art classes, run bible classes, and preach the Gospel. This was a great way to give and serve outside of our direct community and spread the work that God has called us to. We served over 100 students while we were there

PART VI SECTION C LINE 19

We did not make our governing documents, conflict of interest policy, or financial statements available to the public during 2018 because no one requested it during this time.
