Form 990 (2018)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Texas 2036 uses data, research, and leading experts to enable Texans to make informed decisions about the core challenges impacting the states future. The group is currently working on a strategic policy plan, scheduled for draft release at the end of 2019, focused on change in six key policy areas: education & workforce, health & human services, infrastructure, natural resources, justice & safety, and government performance. Core to the work of Texas 2036 is the use of data to inform planning and drive decision making. In October 2018, Texas 2036 launched a Data Platform, accessible at dataplatfom.texas2036.org. The Data Platform offers a free, online repository of Texas-related data sources. The Data Platform allows users to visualize, manipulate, and download datasets from trusted sources that can educate Texans, drive informed policy development, and measure state success. Texas 2036 will use specific metrics, linked to policy recommendations, to track outcomes over time, and hold policy makers accountable for future-oriented action that gets results. Texas 2036 hosts conferences and summits to bring different groups together to discuss and learn from each other regarding matters impacting the health and vitality of the Texas economy and quality of life. The Organization also makes recommendations and presents policy ideas to the Texas policymakers and other governmental agencies to support the continued health and vitality of the Texas economy and quality of life. Based on its nonpartisan analysis, study, and research, the Organization may advocate a particular position or viewpoint that would impact the health and vitality of Texas.
