990 Schedule F, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule F, Part I, Line 2	Emil Ghatan and members of the local foreign religious community oversees Jewish Programming promoting the principles of Judaism through seminars, meetings, and weekend and holiday retreats and oversees the distributions to individuals' charity support as well as the purchase of clothing and food for individuals in need. Emil Ghatan and the members-of the local foreign religious community also oversee the process to make sure all recipients are truly in need and are meeting their required obligations and using the money for its intended purposes. Before any support is approved to any entity or individual, it would have to be approved by a majority of the trustees, Rabbis, board of directors, and members of the organization. The entities that receive support are well known in the religious community. We get to know them through their participation in our community. We also visit the officers and their families at their homes to see how they are living, check if they have a valid need for our financial support, and determine their righteousness. The need our support is determined by Rabbis and other board members. Support is given by assessing each recipients needs and or based whether the entities can deliver. None of the officers of recipients have been related to any individuals who make funding selections or to any of our officers or board members. Because we remain continuous contact with the recipients, we are confident that it is used for its intended purpose as we monitor each entities progress. If we were to ever discovered any misuse of our funds, we would immediately terminate he relationship and take legal action if necessary.
