Part III Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Check if Schedule O contains a response or note to any line in this Part III

1 Briefly describe the organization's mission:

The mission of the Lever Foundation is to prevent animal suffering and cruelty to animals by promoting healthy, humane and sustainable food choices.

2 Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ? Yes No

If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O.

3 Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services? Yes No

If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O.

4 Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported.

4a (Code:) (Expenses $ 61,939.00 including grants of $ 0) (Revenue $ 0)

Lever Foundation worked with major food companies to inspire and help them remove the worst forms of animal cruelty from their supply chain, with a particular focus on helping companies commit to ending the use of battery cages (or other cage confinement of egg-laying hens) in their supply chain. In 2018, Lever Foundation was able to secure commitments from several major food companies to end the use of cages in their egg supply chain, policy shifts which will spare hundreds of thousands of animals per year from the acute cruelty of battery cage confinement. Because one out of every four laying hens alive today is living in China, and because there has been very little work done to advance this issue in the region, Lever Foundation focused its efforts on achieving these policy changes in the greater China region and throughout Asia generally. The policy changes generated by Lever Foundation's program work in this area in 2018 will spare roughly 350,000 egg-laying hens per year from the acute cruelty of battery cage confinement. Note: expenses are a rounded approximation, as many program expenses span more than one program area.

4b (Code:) (Expenses $ 20,000.00 including grants of $ 0) (Revenue $ 0)

Lever Foundation worked to grow the "alternative protein" space (plant-based meat, egg and dairy products, and "clean" meat, egg, and dairy products that are produced from cellular agriculture or fermentation without the need for live animals) by assisting entrepreneurs with starting companies in the space, helping startups secure investment funding, and directing more investor interest and investment dollars to the alternative protein space. Lever Foundation also worked with major food companies to promote adding more alternative protein options. Because one of out every two farm animals alive today is living in China, and because this market is very under-developed in China, Lever Foundation focused its efforts on growing the alternative protein space in the greater China region. Because of the nature of this work, it is hard to estimate a specific number of animals that will benefit from work done in this area by Lever Foundation in 2018. Note: expenses are a rounded approximation, as many program expenses span more than one program area.

4c (Code:) (Expenses $ 5,000.00 including grants of $ 0) (Revenue $ 0)

Lever Foundation worked to promote interest in plant-based foods through working directly with companies and institutions to shift more of their purchasing toward plant-based foods, and through promoting to the public the benefits of eating more plant-based foods. Because one of every two farm animals alive today lives in China, and because there has been very little work done to advance this issue in China or Asia generally, Lever Foundation focused its efforts on promoting plant-based foods and plant-based eating in the greater China region. Because of the nature of the work, it is hard to estimate a specific number of animals that will benefit from work done in this area by Lever Foundation in 2018. Note: expenses are a rounded approximation, as many program expenses span more than one program area.

4d Other program services (Describe in Schedule O.)
(Expenses $ including grants of $) (Revenue $)

4e Total program service expenses ▶ $86,939.00

Part VI, Line 2: In May of 2018, board members Nick Cooney and Laura Morse married. At the time of this filing Laura Morse is no longer a board member and all board members are independent.

Part VI, Line 6: Yes, the organization has members.

Part VI, Line 7a: Yes, members have the right to appoint one or more members of the governing body (the board of directors).

Part VI, Line 7b: General governance decisions are made by the governing body, the board of directors. However, the organization's bylaws hold that members have certain additional rights including the right to approve directors and officers, adjust the number of directors on the board, and the right to remove directors; and members have the exclusive right to dissolve the organization, approve amendment of the bylaws, and make changes to the articles of incorporation.

Part VI, Line 11b: The 990 form and schedules are compiled by an officer of the board and reviewed by all board members to ensure information is accurate prior to submission.

Part VI, Line 12c: Lever Foundation has a thorough written conflict of interest policy that directors and employees sign yearly.

All persons having a conflict or potential conflict are required to disclose such to the rest of the Board for their review and consideration. Compliance is enforced by the Board, which reviews all potential conflicts of interest, and persons with a conflict of interest abstain from discussions relating to transactions or arrangements that involve or may involve actual or potential conflicts of interest. The potential existence of conflicts is considered when each Board discussion and vote is held, and also reviewed once yearly when the annual conflict of interest policy is re-signed.

Part VI, Line 15a and 15b: Yes, the process for determining compensation has since been reviewed and approved by independent members of the board and was contemporaneously substantiated in the meeting minutes of the board (after the 2018 tax year concluded).

Deliberation on acceptable compensation amount included comparability considerations. Lines 15, 15a, and 15b are relevant only for the $11,000 compensation of director Nick Cooney, as there is no other compensated CEO, Executive Director, top official, or key employee.
