Return Reference	Explanation
Grantmaker's Description of How Grants are Used	Correspondence from the Foundation to recipient organizations indicates the purpose, goals and limitations of each grant. Grantee organizations typically go through the entire Colorado Common Grant Request process yearly and frequently there is a recap of each organization's prior year activity. The Foundation requests feedback from each organization throughout the year as to how the organization is meeting the goals of each grant, but it is not mandatory that the grantees respond. The Foundation follows up with grantees to obtain information on their programming. The Foundation withdraws future support if the grantee is not meeting its goal and objectives.
