Part IV Supplemental Information. Provide the information required in Part I, line 2, Part III, column (b), and any other additional information

No grant funds are received other than individual donations from individuals, estates, religious congregations or social groups.

Individuals and families are referred by many different organizations and their needs are assessed and service is provided as available.

The target population are people who are falling through the cracks so no hard and firm criteria of need is used other than the verbal assessment by the representative of this organization. Service seldom is provided in the form of cash and for needs that cannot be provided, referrals to other agencies that can provide the necessary service are given.
