Explanation: The purpose of this letter is to explain the unfortunate circumstances behind the late filing of McDowell Mountain Ranch Soccer Clubs tax filing for the 2018 tax year. In 2018 and into 2019, the organization was the victim of an identity theft scam in the form of counterfeit checks and unauthorized electronic charges. The organization had to work with their bank over a period of time to prevent further unauthorized transactions, including closing the previous checking account and opening a new one which prevented us from accessing our financial information for a period of time. Since McDowell Mountain Ranch Soccer Club is a small organization, comprised mostly of volunteers, we honestly had a difficult time sorting out the effects of the identity theft. It was not the organizations intention to willfully neglect the filing requirement.
