Reasonable Cause Explanations

Explanation

The Foundation had a Tax Preparer Volunteer as Treasurer. He was doing the accounting and filed the Tax Return for 2017. He was to complete the books for 2018 and file the return. He procrastinated the filing until it was too late to file on time. Subsequently he resigned leaving the process to me. As you can see from our filings, we have no employees and only Volunteers. This has been our goal from early on, to keep the Foundation simple and not spend money on administration. Fortunately and unfortunately the Foundation grew making it more difficult. I have volunteered as Treasurer and Past President as my wife who started the foundation died from this Cancer. I have tried to get someone to take over my job to no avail. The Foundation has done excellent work among the Leiomyosarcoma family and we have funded a significant amount of research of which one may become commercially viable in the next 3 years. This is the first of three delinquent returns which I am preparing. Obviously Covid19 has impacted my ability to accomplish this. We have contracted with a bookkeeping service for 2021 and going forward so hopefully we will stay up to date. All delinquent returns are being filed simultaneously. Please help by waiving the penalty and reinstating our 501 c 3 exemption.
