Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11b	The Form 990 was prepared under the guidance of the organization's Business Manager by the independent accounting firm SCHOEDEL & SCHOEDEL, Certified Public Accountants, PLLC. Draft copies of the organization's financial statements and Form 990 were first provided to the organization's Business Manager who reviewed the Form 990 for accuracy and completeness. Any questions, concerns, or issues raised by the Business Manager were addressed, and any necessary revisions were made to the Form 990. The revised Form 990 was then provided to the Executive Board for its review and approval. Any additional questions, concerns, or issues raised by the Executive Board were addressed, and any necessary revisions were made to the Form 990. The final version of the Form 990 was reviewed, approved for filing by the Executive Board.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	Officers, board members or any other person having responsibility for the management or administration of Local 44's finances, investments, or other proprietary information concerning the local are considered interested persons. An interested person is under a continuing obligation to disclose any potential conflict of interest to the Executive Board as soon as it is known or reasonably should be known. The interested person is given the opportunity to disclose all material facts to the Executive Board when considering the proposed transaction or arrangement. After disclosure of the financial, professional, or personal interest and all material facts, and after any discussion with the interested person, he/she leaves the board meeting while the determination of a conflict of interest is considered. If the disinterested members of the Executive Board determine a conflict of interest exists, the President of the Board, if appropriate, appoints a disinterested person or committee to investigate alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement. After exercising due diligence, the board determines whether the local can obtain with reasonable efforts a more advantageous transaction or arrangement with a person or entity that would not give rise to a conflict of interest. If a more advantageous transaction or arrangement is not reasonably attainable under circumstances that would not give rise to a conflict of interest, the Board or committee determines by majority vote of the disinterested members whether the transaction agreement or arrangement is in the Local's best interest, for its own benefit, and whether it is fair and reasonable. In conformity with the above determination the Executive Board makes a decision as to whether to enter into the transaction agreement or arrangement. The minutes of the meeting reflect that the conflict disclosure was made to the Board, the vote taken and, where applicable, the abstention from voting and participation by the interested party. Whenever possible, the minutes frame the decision of the Executive Board in such a way to provide guidance for consideration of future conflict of interest situations. To ensure the Local operates in a manner consistent with its tax-exempt purposes and does not engage in activities that could jeopardize its tax-exempt status, the Executive Board conducts periodic reviews. The periodic reviews include, at a minimum, the following subjects: Whether the contractual arrangements with service providers and the services provided are reasonable, based on competent market and survey information, and the result of arm's length negotiation. Whether contractual arrangements with service providers and arrangements with other organizations conform to written policies, are properly recorded, reflect reasonable investment or payments for goods and services, further tax-exempt purposes, and do not result in inurement, impermissible private benefit or in an excess benefit transaction. Whether
