PART IV

The Friends of the Bellingham Public Library provide the Library with a financial report each year before the end of the fifth month after year end. This report includes detailed information on the support they have provided during the year.

The Director of the Bellingham Public Library attends board meetings of the Friends at which Library needs are discussed and which the Friends agree to support financially.

The funds contributed by the Friends fill gaps in the book and other materials collections. They also fund desired community educational program and Library staff training not provided in the city budget for the Library. Lack of these funds would cause a serious interruption to the proper functioning of the Library.
