WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT Our Workforce Development programs offer a pathway to self-sufficiency and economic advancement. We offer beginning through advanced technology classes, including a 22-week Career Track course which integrates ESL and professional development with a focus on building skills for higher paying jobs and promotions. We also help small business owners in Concord to formalize their businesses. We also provide training for refugees with limited English skills through CalWORKS to help them enter the workforce. Our Day Labor program connects employers with workers and ensures a strong hourly wage and greater financial independence. We served 221 people in Workforce programs in 2018 and placed our Day Laborers in 11,300 daily job placements.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

HEALTHY COMMUNITY Through multiple programs that promote an overall healthy quality of life, Monument Impact offers more than 20 free physical activity classes every week in the parks and health coaching. We train community members to serve as health promoters. Our evidence-based group mental health program called positive minds in action is led by community health promoters and designed to reach Spanish-speaking community members of Concord who self-identity as living with stress and depression. We also work with the county on tobacco prevention policy to prevent low-income communities of color and youth from being targeted by advertising of flavored tobacco products. Our Healthy Community programs served 405 people in 2018.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Line 11b Form 990 Review Process	The tax return is prepared by an outside accounting firm. After completion of said returns, the organization is sent a draft of the tax returns to be reviewed and examined. The organization makes copies of the returns and distributes to those individuals charged with governance. Those individuals at that time can review and if applicable discuss any line items in the return with the accountant who has prepared the return. If all items are found to be acceptable, an authorization is signed and provided to authorize the outside accounting firm to process, sign and provide copies of the returns to be filed (paper or electronically) with the designated governmental agencies. The tax returns are then signed by the organization, stamped and mailed with certified return receipt or the signed form 8879 is provided to the outside accounting firm allowing electronic filing.
